

Five Loaves Two Fish The Klipplaat Remedial Reading Project March 2019

“Whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to God the Father through Him.”

The Klipplaat Remedial Reading Project is going strong. Please do feel free to drop in at the Brandovale Primary School any school day, to see our two teachers in action in their classroom, enthusiastically helping children learn to read.

Here on the right is Ms Jagers prompting three little Grade 4 girls as they eagerly read a story.

And here below is Mrs Bruiners, teaching three Grade 2's how to read. Mrs Bruiners works with the Grade 2's and 3's, and Ms Jagers the Grade 4's and 5's.

In addition to paying these two teachers, we also pay a small stipend to Mr B. Devine, who volunteers at the local high school, and is studying education by correspondence. His study fees, as well as those of Ms C. Warren and Ms C. Williams, who both recently qualified as teachers, are paid by Five Loaves Two Fish. Ms Jagers will soon start her studies too.

Our project has a website:

www.fiveloavestwofish.org.za

Or if you google “Klipplaat reading project” you will find it.

The main purpose of the website is to make our reading materials available to people in other towns who might like to help people learn to read. If you know of anyone who is interested in helping children or adults learn to read, please do point out to them that our sound charts, worksheets and story books are available for downloading. The pdf files can be printed up and used, free of charge.

Most of our materials are in Afrikaans, as that is the language spoken by a lot of people in Klipplaat, but there are also sound charts and a few stories in isiXhosa and in English. All over the country, children need help with reading, as the government do not appoint remedial teachers in schools.

Thank you to all of you who take an interest in this project. It is a blessing to us to be able to work with our teachers, a blessing to the children who are helped, and we hope that you are blessed too as you encourage and support us.
