

“Whatever you do in word or deed, do all in the name of the Lord Jesus, giving thanks to the Father through Him.”

The third term has started with all of the Five Loaves Two Fish teachers working enthusiastically at the primary school, the high school, and at home. Here is Mrs Bruiners teaching two young boys in her kitchen at home – her age makes her too “vulnerable” to teach at school. While this was happening, in the other “classroom” in her house, Ms May was helping another group with their reading.

Ms May (left) works at at Mrs Bruiners’ house two days a week, and joins Ms Grootboom (right) in the reading classroom at the primary school on the other three days.

It has always been our hope that similar reading projects will begin in other towns, and our website has been designed to encourage this. We are happy to report that an independently-funded project has just been started by members of a local church in Graaff-Reinet, using Five Loaves Two Fish ideas and reading materials. Five young women at various Graaff-Reinet primary schools are being trained to help children who struggle with reading. At a workshop two weeks ago, organised by Mrs Hestie Clegg, these eager young people spent the day organising their teaching materials, and learning how to use them. The need for children to be helped with reading seems to be universal.

We thank all our wonderful Five Loaves Two Fish donors, whose generous support makes all this possible.
